

Example profile: Nanny

Not sure what to include in your SearchChildcare listing? Check out our example profile for some inspiration.

Creating a great profile isn't about listing every single detail about your career history. Instead, we recommend highlighting just the most important and useful features about the service you offer.

When deciding what information to provide, try to think about what parents might find useful when making their childcare choice. Consider including the following;

- ★ The length of time you have been working as a Nanny
- ★ Your Ofsted or CSSIW voluntary approval scheme details (where applicable)
- ★ Details of any relevant training you have undertaken
- ★ Whether you hold a full UK driving licence
- ★ The area in which you are happy to work
- ★ Short recommendations or testimonials from existing clients

Example Nanny Nanny

I have been a nanny for more than five years and am passionate about delivering high quality childcare and early education.

I hold a degree in Early Years and hold up-to-date certificates in;

- * Paediatric First Aid
- * Safeguarding
- * Basic food hygiene

"I'm almost sorry our twins are about to start school, we're all going to really miss our Nanny, she was like one of the family" A Parent

I hold a full UK driving licence and am happy to work anywhere in the Example borough.

School / Nursery runs Spaces available

IMPORTANT INFO ABOUT PHOTOS: Your images are public so anyone can view them, which makes it possible for anyone to be able to obtain a copy of them. It is therefore important that you have full permission before you upload images to your profile. It's also wise to only upload images in which people and locations are not identifiable. For example, consider only choosing photos of children playing where you can't see the child's face or any other identifiable features.